

CONTENTS

Foreword. . . . .	1
Eugenics Board of North Carolina. . . . .	3
Contents. . . . .	5
General Information. . . . .	7
Background of sterilization legislation in North Carolina.
Purposes of eugenical sterilization.
Organization. . . . .	8
Eugenics Board.
Eugenics Board meetings.
Other persons having legal responsibility.
Persons Who May Be Sterilized. . . . .	9
Filing Petitions. . . . .	9
Duty to institute proceedings.
Persons responsible for filing petition.
For operations on individuals in State institutions.
For operations on individuals in County institutions.
For operations on all other individuals.
Information Required for Filing Petition. . . . .	11
Information regarding physical condition.
Information regarding mental condition.
Social history.
Consents for Sterilization Operation. . . . .	12
Advantages in securing consents.
Consent of the individual to be sterilized.
Consent of spouse, parent, next of kin, or guardian.
Operation to be performed upon a married individual.
Operation to be performed upon a single minor.
Operation to be performed upon an unmarried adult.
Appointment of guardian ad litem.
Procedure if consents are not secured.
Action of the Eugenics Board. . . . .	15
When necessary consents are filed.
When necessary consents are not secured.
When changes in original order are needed.
Extension of time for performance of operation.
Change in surgeon.
Non-institutional case entering institution before operation has been performed.
Individual moves to another county after operation is authorized but prior to its performance.
Marriage of individual after filing of petition but prior to performance of operation.	